ART ON DISPLAY

Every month, paintings, photography, sculpture, and other creative crafts are displayed in the Helen Gould Room located directly off the main foyer. We are pleased to present the following exhibitions:

NOVEMBER: The Route 27 Exhibit by New York photographer Michael Domino illustrates that Route 27 is more than just a road; it is a thread that runs through the history and character of Long Island. As he traveled east along Montauk Highway, Michael captured images of various elements that caught his attention—focusing not only on landmarks but also on objects and places that embody pieces of the Island's essence. An Artist Reception will be held on Sunday, November 8 from 2:00PM-4:00PM in the Helen Gould Room.

DECEMBER: Richard Margolies creates abstract paintings that enhance the canvas's flat surface. Starting his formal education at the Art Students League of New York, he views each artwork as a new birth. His nurturing process involves freely applying colors and layers, allowing the work to evolve. The final piece aims to look fresh, energetic, and unlabored.
